Happy is the Man that findeth Wisdom,
And the Man that getteth Understanding. For the Merchandise of it is better than the Merchandise of Silver, and the Gain thereof than fine Gold. She is more precious than Rubies and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her. Length of Days is in her Right Hand, and in her Left Hand Riches & Honour.
Her ways are ways of Pleasantness and all her paths are Peace.

I Wisdom dwell with Prudence

And those that seek me early shall find me. But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own Soul. All they that hate me love Death.
Hear O my Son and receive my sayings; and the Years of thy Life shall be many. Take fast hold of Instruction. Let her not go. Keep her

For She is thy Life

Behold the Fear of the Lord: That is Wisdom
And to depart from Evil is Understanding.

The first of all the Commandments is

Hear O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord. And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy Heart, and with all thy Soul, and with all thy Mind, and with all thy Strength.

This is the first and Great Commandment

And the second is like. Namely This

Thou shalt Love thy Neighbour as thy Self.

On these two Commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets

RECEIPT.

TO

Mrs. Biddy Lloyd.

*When Cupid did his Grandsire Jove entreat
To form some Beauty by a New Receipt,
Jove sent and found, far in a Country Scene,
Truth, Innocence, Good Nature, Look serene:
From which Ingredients, first the dextrous Boy
Pick'd the Demure, the Awkward, and the Coy.
The Graces from the Court did next Provide Breeding, and Wit, and Air, and decent Pride:
These Venus cleans'd from ev'ry spurious Grain
Of Nice, Coquet, Affect, Pert, and Vain.
Jove mix'd 'em all, and his best Clay employ'd,
Then call'd the happy Composition Floyd.*
